

English Standards of Learning CURRICULUM FRAMEWORK 2010

Grade Seven

Board of Education, Commonwealth of Virginia

At the seventh-grade level, students will continue to develop oral communication skills and will become more aware of the effects of verbal and nonverbal behaviors in oral communications. Students will also demonstrate knowledge and understanding of persuasive/informative techniques used in media messages, including viewpoints expressed in nonprint media.

- 7.1 The student will participate in and contribute to conversations, group discussions, and oral presentations.
- a) Communicate ideas and information orally in an organized and succinct manner.
 - b) Ask probing questions to seek elaboration and clarification of ideas.
 - c) Make statements to communicate agreement or tactful disagreement with others' ideas.
 - d) Use language and style appropriate to audience, topic, and purpose.
 - e) Use a variety of strategies to listen actively.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The intent of this standard is that students will participate effectively in formal and informal classroom conversations and understand the requirements and uses of standard social conventions in conversations and presentations. • Students will express opinions forthrightly yet respectfully, demonstrating interest in and respect for the opinions of others. • Students will use grammatically correct language. • Teachers should model active listening strategies. 	All students should <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • understand and demonstrate appropriate audience behavior. • prepare and deliver oral presentations. • participate effectively in group discussions and presentations. • show awareness of audience, topic, and purpose. 	To be successful with this standard, students are expected to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • contribute relevant ideas, opinions, and feelings in large and small diverse groups. • offer and seek summary statements of their own ideas and the ideas of others. • select vocabulary, tone, and style with audience and purpose in mind. • state points clearly and directly. • include multimedia in presentations. • maintain a focused discussion. • ask clarifying questions and respond appropriately to others' questions in order to encourage discussion, foster understanding, and bring the discussion back to the topic when needed. • provide feedback to other group members, acknowledge new insights expressed by others, and when justified, modify their own views. • use a variety of strategies to actively listen, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ give speaker undivided attention; ◦ use body language and gestures to show they are listening; ◦ provide feedback or paraphrase; ◦ allow the speaker to finish without interruptions; and ◦ respond appropriately.

- 7.2 The student will identify and demonstrate the relationship between a speaker’s verbal and nonverbal messages.
- a) Use verbal communication skills, such as word choice, pitch, feeling, tone, and voice appropriate for the intended audience.
 - b) Use nonverbal communication skills, such as eye contact, posture, and gestures to enhance verbal communication skills.
 - c) Compare/contrast a speaker’s verbal and nonverbal messages.

UNDERSTANDING THE STANDARD (Teacher Notes)	ESSENTIAL UNDERSTANDINGS	ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND PROCESSES

- 7.3 The student will understand the elements of media literacy.
- Identify persuasive/informative techniques used in nonprint media including television, radio, video, and Internet.
 - Distinguish between fact and opinion, and between evidence and inference.
 - Describe how word choice and visual images convey a viewpoint.
 - Compare and contrast the techniques in auditory, visual, and written media messages.
 - Craft and publish audience-specific media messages.

UNDERSTANDING THE STANDARD (Teacher Notes)	ESSENTIAL UNDERSTANDINGS	ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND PROCESSES
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The intent of this standard is that students will identify and evaluate a variety of media elements and persuasive techniques used in the media. They will recognize that all media messages are constructed and that to understand the whole meaning of the message they can deconstruct it, looking at the following attributes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Authorship (Who constructed the message?) ◦ Format (This is not just the medium being used but also how the creators used specific elements for effect, i.e., color, sound, emphasis on certain words, amateur video, kids' voices.) ◦ Audience (Who is the person or persons meant to receive the message? How will different people receive the message?) ◦ Content (This is not just the visible content but the embedded content as well, which includes underlying assumptions of values or points of view; facts and opinions may be intermixed.) ◦ Purpose (Why is the message being sent—is it meant to persuade, inform, entertain, sell, or a combination of these?) 	All students should <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • understand that facts can be verified and opinions cannot. • distinguish fact from opinion. • identify the effect of persuasive messages on the audience. • notice use of persuasive language and connotations to convey viewpoint. • recognize that each medium creates meaning differently using visual or verbal techniques. For example, a dissolving picture indicates the passing of time, as do transitional words and phrases in verbal presentations. • analyze a media text considering what techniques have been used and their purpose. 	To be successful with this standard, students are expected to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • deconstruct and analyze the elements of a variety of media including layout, pictures, and text features in print media, and camera shots, lighting, editing and sound in TV, radio, and film. • recognize that production elements in media are composed based on audience and purpose to create specific effects. • identify persuasive techniques in the media including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ name calling or innuendo – creating a negative attitude; hinting or implying; using loaded, emotional, or slanted language; ◦ glittering generalities or card stacking – telling only part of the truth; generalizing from a shred of evidence; ◦ bandwagon – creating a desire to join a large group satisfied with the idea; making one feel left out if not with the crowd; ◦ testimonials – using the declaration of a famous person or authoritative expert to give heightened credibility; ◦ appeal to prestige, snobbery, or plain folks – using a spokesperson who appeals to the audience: a well-known or appealing person the audience wants to emulate, a person like the audience members with whom they can identify, a person whose lifestyle appeals to the audience; and ◦ appeal to emotions – connecting with emotions: loyalty, pity, or fear; love of family, peace, or justice. • recognize and identify opinions in the media. • recognize and identify facts in the media. • recognize that evidence is fact and a valid inference is the interpretation of fact.

- 7.3 The student will understand the elements of media literacy.
- a) Identify persuasive/informative techniques used in nonprint media including television, radio, video, and Internet.
 - b) Distinguish between fact and opinion, and between evidence and inference.
 - c) Describe how word choice and visual images convey a viewpoint.
 - d) Compare and contrast the techniques in auditory, visual, and written media messages.
 - e) Craft and publish audience-specific media messages.

UNDERSTANDING THE STANDARD (Teacher Notes)	ESSENTIAL UNDERSTANDINGS	ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND PROCESSES
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Auditory media can be heard (e.g., music, radio shows, podcasts). • Visual media can be viewed (e.g., television, video, Web-based materials, print ads). • Written media includes text (e.g., newspapers, magazines, books, blogs). • Students should recognize that media messages vary depending on the medium. A strictly auditory message is more dependent on sound than a visual message. Each message uses a variety of techniques. 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • recognize that the effectiveness of any media message is determined by the impact on the intended audience. For example, the Don't Drink and Drive campaign has been an effective campaign because the number of traffic accidents due to drunk driving has been reduced. • describe the effect on the audience of persuasive messages in the media. • identify effective word choice in the media. • identify and analyze a variety of viewpoints expressed in the media. • create and publish age-appropriate media messages, such as public service announcements aimed at a variety of audiences with different purposes; include multimedia components in presentations to emphasize points.

At the seventh-grade level, students will continue the study of roots and affixes for vocabulary development and continue to study figurative language. Connotations will be introduced. They will read and understand information from various sources including a variety of fiction, nonfiction, and poetry. They will continue to read for appreciation and comprehension in both classic and recent works. Students will apply critical reading and reasoning skills across the content areas, including history and social science, science, and mathematics. When selecting texts, teachers will consider appropriateness of subject and theme as well as text complexity.

- 7.4 The student will read to determine the meanings and pronunciations of unfamiliar words and phrases within authentic texts.
- Identify word origins and derivations.
 - Use roots, cognates, affixes, synonyms, and antonyms to expand vocabulary.
 - Identify and analyze figurative language.
 - Identify connotations.
 - Use context and sentence structure to determine meanings and differentiate among multiple meanings of words.
 - Extend general and specialized vocabulary through speaking, listening, reading, and writing.

UNDERSTANDING THE STANDARD (Teacher Notes)	ESSENTIAL UNDERSTANDINGS	ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND PROCESSES
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The intent of this standard is that students will become independent learners of vocabulary by choosing from a variety of strategies to determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words. Students come to understand affixes, including prefixes and suffixes, roots, derivations, and inflections of polysyllabic words and understand that words with similar parts may be related to each other in meaning and origin. Teachers should use a study of cognates, words from the same linguistic family, to enhance vocabulary instruction. Cognates can occur within the same language or across languages, e.g., night (English), nuit (French), Nacht (German), nacht (Dutch), nicht (Scots), natt (Swedish, Norwegian), nat (Danish), raat (Urdu), nátt (Faroese), nótt (Icelandic), noc (Czech, Slovak, Polish). Students will continue the study of figurative language and use context to help determine the meaning of words. Students will begin to notice connotations of words and use reference books and context to determine the nuances of connotative language. 	All students should <ul style="list-style-type: none"> use word structure to analyze and find relationships among words. recognize that figurative language and analogy enrich text. 	To be successful with this standard, students are expected to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> use common Greek or Latin affixes and roots to predict the meaning of unfamiliar words and make connections with word families (e.g. –phobia, and –ology). separate and recombine known word parts to predict the meaning of unfamiliar words, such as separating dent from dentist and fric from friction to predict the meaning of dentifrice. use synonyms and antonyms to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words. use the relationship between particular words (e.g., synonym/antonym, cause/effect, degree, etc.) to better understand words. recognize that words have nuances of meaning (figurative, connotative, and technical), which help determine the appropriate meaning. recognize, understand, and use figurative language including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> simile – figure of speech that uses the words like or as to make comparisons; metaphor – figure of speech that makes a comparison equating two or more unlike things. personification – figure of speech that applies human characteristics to nonhuman objects; and hyperbole – intentionally exaggerated figure of speech. distinguish among the connotations (associations) of words with similar denotations (definitions) (e.g., refined, respectful, polite, diplomatic, condescending), recognizing that some words have technical meanings
